

EU fundamental rights and effective remedies in Dutch consumer law

Workshop organised by the University of Amsterdam in the project 'Roadmap to European Effective Justice (REJus)', co-funded by Justice Programme of the European Union

Thursday 12 April 2018 (in Dutch)

- 13.30 Registration
- 13.45 Welcome and introduction
- 14.00 EU fundamental rights and Dutch consumer law
Prof. C. (Chantal) Mak, professor of private law, University of Amsterdam
- 14.45 Effective judicial protection in cases on unfair contract terms: the role of Article 47 EU Charter in civil proceedings
J.M.L. (Anna) van Duin, LL.M., University of Amsterdam
- 15.30 Coffee/tea break
- 15.45 Discussion of cases in small groups I
- 16.45 Discussion of cases in small groups II
- 17.45 Plenary discussion
- 18.30 Dinner

Friday 13 April 2018 (in English)

- 9.30 Consumers' right to effective remedies in (EU) competition law
Dr. K.J. (Kati) Cseres, University of Amsterdam
- 10.15 Fundamental rights and the coordination of administrative authorities and courts after the reform of regulation 2006/2004
Prof. F. (Fabrizio) Cafaggi
- 11.00 Coffee/tea break
- 11.15 Discussion of cases in small groups III
- 12.15 ACM perspective
A.-J. (Anne-Jel) Hoelen, LL.M., Authority for Consumers & Markets (ACM)
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.30 Discussion of cases in small groups IV
- 15.30 Coffee/tea break
- 15.45 Plenary discussion
- 16.30 Closing remarks